CONCERT MIT FINTAN VALLELY, TIARNÁN Ó
DUINNCHINN & GERRY (FIDDLE) O'CONNOR

A TRADITIONAL MUSIC JOURNEY AROUND
IRELAND, C. 1688-2016

THE COMPÁNACH CONCERT Montag, 18 September 2017 um 20:00

Einzigartig! Eine Reise durch die traditionelle irische Musik zwischen 1688 – 2016 mit Fintan Vallely (Flöte) und Tiarnán Ó Duinnchinn (ir. Dudelsack) & Gerry (fiddle) O'Connor (Geige). Basiert auf Vallelys umfangreichem Nachschlagewerk „Companion to Irish Traditional Music“ führt der Abend durch die Entwicklungsphasen der irischen Musik von den 17. und 18. Jahrhunderten bis in die moderne Zeit. Ein spannender, tiefgehender und doch immer unterhaltsamer Blick auf diese sehr beliebte Musik.

Gerry O'Connor, Fintan Vallely and Tiarnán Ó Duinnchinn present music and songs from all counties on the island of Ireland. Based on their audiovisual show Compánach, they play uilleann pipes, flute and fiddle, a repertoire based in old playing styles.

Gerry O'Connor is a Dundalk fiddle player, a versatile figure in Irish music who is solidly 'of his place' in the music's traditions. He has toured Europe solo and with the band Skylark, and has many recordings, among them the seminal albums of Lá Lugh with the haunting singer Eithne Ní Uallacháin (Bilingua); he has also taught fiddle internationally over several decades

Tiarnán Ó Duinnchinn is an uilleann piper from Monaghan who has achieved major Irish awards for his playing, most recently the Seán Ó Riada gold medal. He has spent recent years between Ireland and France, is a tutor in uilleann piping with Armagh Pipers' Club and has recorded most recently with harper Laoise Kelly.

Fintan Vallely, editor of the encyclopedia Companion to Irish Traditional Music and director of the show, plays the wooden concert flute. He has been one of the major public voices in Irish music since the early 1990s, the editor of a dozen books, numerous journal articles, including the first tutor for the Irish flute, reviewing, analysing, promoting education and lecturing in Traditional music in major colleges
